

■■ What is the first place you fell in love with?

AGED 22, I bought an around-the-world ticket and set off to see what our world had to offer. I visited Australia, New Zealand, Fiji, Bali, Borneo, Malaysia, Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos, but Thailand was my first love: the people, culture, food, diving and its diverse environments. This journey ignited my passion for travel.

■■ Who do you follow on social media?

INSTAGRAM is my guilty pleasure and a source of constant inspiration for 'My Best Life'. I follow vegans, photographers, travel bloggers, luxury travel brands, yogis, my agent partners and fitness gurus. And my friends, of course!

■■ What is your all-time favourite travel experience?

EACH of the places I have been lucky enough to visit has struck a chord for different reasons. If I have to choose, Rwanda was truly life changing. I went with huge excitement about the gorillas. And from the moment we touched down I knew there was also so much more. This country and its people blew me away. It was a magical,

ASK the EXPERT

We talked to Lindsey Spagnol, Regional Director of luxury jet tour operator TCS World Travel, for her travel recommendations...

Jet-set jaunt:
Fly to Rwanda to see the gorillas in Volcanoes
National Park

unforgettable experience and I cannot recommend it highly enough.

■■ What makes travelling with TCS World Travel so special?

IN a world where more and more people look to enrich their lives with experiences, not 'things', there is no travel company that delivers once-in-a-lifetime experiences better than TCS World Travel. Well planned itineraries, unique experiences, exclusive access not compromised by hordes of other tourists, and the finest hospitality throughout, with every single detail taken care of for you. Genuinely, nothing else comes close.

■■ To what do you attribute the rise in private-jet holidays?

TRAVELLING by private jet on curated journeys takes away many of the inconveniences and hassles of multi-centre travel. Itineraries can be achieved that simply aren't possible by scheduled air. And with TCS, you travel with a dedicated crew, including an on-board chef, so you are assured the finest hospitality, leaving you refreshed for your discovery experiences wherever you visit.

Find out more about these experiences, visit tcsworldtravel.co.uk