Roar Africa's Into the Wild with David Whyte is a small-group journey of peace and purpose set in the majesty of Kenya's Segera Retreat (above) and led by the internationally renowned poet and philosopher. The itinerary includes daily game drives, Swahili interactive cooking lessons, storytelling sessions, body work, and a reconnection with nature and self. Limited to 12 couples or 24 guests. February 22–28, 2023. $21,700/person; roarafrika.com

Visit the Great Bear Rainforest with Maple Leaf Adventures. Haida Gwaii (known as Canada's Galapagos Islands) is wild and bursting with natural beauty. Walk the rainforest, soak in hot springs, view marine mammals up close, and explore the grand Kitlope

(a place of First Nations cultural history and an estuary frequented by bears). Sail aboard a beautiful schooner, a classic converted tugboat, or a modern 12-cabin catamaran (below left). From $5,600; mapleleafadventures.com

Embark on TCS World Travel's World Less Traveled: a Luxury Tour by Private Jet (right) to explore lesser-known UNESCO World Heritage Sites across Africa, South America, and the Arabian Peninsula. February 11–25, 2023. $105,000/person; tcsworldtravel.com

Another air journey crafted by award-winning tour operator George Morgan-Grenville, founder and CEO of Red Savannah, and hosted by American Viscountess, Julie Montagu, is the inaugural Grand Tour of Europe by Private Jet. The private driver and guide for independent discoveries, plus private dining at Michelin-starred venues, make this a standout experience. September 12–24, 2023. From $139,500/person; Email Camilla Davidson at inspired@redsavannah.com

Take a Nour El Nil Nile Cruise and float through Egypt like Agatha Christie in a traditional, but newly built and luxe dahabiya that sleeps up to 18 guests. See ancient monuments such as Luxor Temple and the royal tombs in the Valley of the Kings. Onboard: Relax in a hammock on deck, feast on local cuisine, and dance the night away to traditional Arabic music. From $1,930/six-day itinerary; nourelnil.com

Paul Allen's 414-foot expedition yacht Octopus (below) is available for the first time for charters in Antarctica. Complete with an ice-class hull, two helipads, and a submarine, it also has a gym and wellness area, cinema, and glass-bottomed aquarium. Sleeps 12 with a crew of 42.
